

2007 R&D 100 Award Entry

Passive Millimeter-Wave Spectrometer for Remote Chemical Detection

A revolutionary and discreet approach to the detection of airborne gases and chemicals that eliminates the problems of interference from clouds and other atmospheric conditions associated with other detection methods.

Argonne National Laboratory is a U.S. Department of Energy laboratory managed by UChicago Argonne, LLC

UChicago
Argonne_{LLC}

R&D 100 CONTACT, CYNTHIA WESOLOWSKI (630) 252-7694